Our Story

In the heart of the open road, where endless highways intertwine like veins connecting communities, there emerged a beacon of hospitality, community, warmth and flavors as rich as the Heartland's soil—welcome to the Coffee Kettle Café. Nestled within the embrace of Sapp Bros. Travel Centers, this quaint yet resolute eatery stands proudly, a testament to the fusion of rustic charm and unique specials, bringing people together one homemade dish at a time.

Our tale begins not just with bricks and mortar, but with a legacy, a story woven into the very fabric of the American heartland. Four brothers, born and raised under the vast Nebraska sky, embarked on a journey to create a haven for travelers—a place that embodies the values of their upbringing. The Sapp Brothers, stewards of rural warmth and heartfelt service, set out to build more than just truck stops; they aimed to create a sense of home for those traversing the highways and byways. Where you're not just a patron, but an honored guest.

Enter the iconic Sapp Bros. coffee pot water tower, a towering sentinel that stands proudly, casting a welcoming shadow over the travelers who pass beneath. This distinctive landmark, the inspiration behind the Coffee Kettle Café, serves as a symbol that reminds you're almost home.

At the heart of the Coffee Kettle Café is a commitment to solving the timeless problem faced by travelers and professional drivers alike: the search for a place that feels like home served with a dash of nostalgia. The Coffee Kettle Café doesn't just serve meals; it's a remedy for the weariness of the road, and a reminder that, in the midst of the vast expanse, a warm cup of coffee and a comforting dish can create a sense of belonging.

Every interaction is a chance to share a moment, create a memory, and leave with the comforting knowledge that, on this stretch of highway, a piece of home awaits.
